Welcome: Ms. Mayo, Ms. Msica Start Time:

Enrollment: Numbers are down in German program. There are approximately 20 spaces available.

Msica asks. Will reduction in number impact our number of teachers? Dr. Eybl states we are not worried about losing a teacher, yet.

Staffing Updates (5 min.): Vacancies for the 2022-23 school year:

Social Studies – Gr. 8

Math – Gr. 7

ELA – Gr. 8

Spanish

.5 CTE

.5 French

ISS asst.

Elem: Media asst.

Elem. French

Elem. German

Elem. Japanese

Mayo asks if anyone knows of someone interested to send resume.

Msica asks if positions are for next year. Dr. Eybl confirms yes.

Parent asks about allotment for ELA ES position, is that going to be replaced. Ms. Mayo states no allotment at this time.

Msica asks about EC position for Ms. Read. Dr. Eybl currently states she is serving as substitute for missing EC position. Msica asks if it is possible to get an additional EC teacher. If more students are certified, then an additional allotment is possible. Dr. Eybl explains that EC number shifts due to the Students entering EC and some leaving. 69 EC students currently.

Chat Q: how is ES ELA going to be covered. Dr. Eybl states Mr. Genee has stepped in and will do so again.

End of Year Events and Testing:

- PTSO Carnival: Saturday, May 7

- World Language Assessments and STAMP - EOGs – May 16 – June 7

- In process of finalizing EOG plan for this year and will send out soon.

Q. Do results go HOme? Lynch state, no they do not go home

Mcnamara asks about who is retiring and leaving for next year.

Arnold leaving, Caple to 6th Science, Pagan has rescind. ISS also rescind Ms. Dols rescind not adding to her position. Stahl leaving. Mr. Barrera is EOY 8th grade English also Open.

Who is getting promoted? Dr. Eybl cannot share yet, as it is not cleared with HR.

Mary Isaacs Testing and Event? Dr. Eybl states those will most likely be make-up dates

HORSE French: Dr. Eybl spoke to person in charge and would like to start an in-person French Club (2 hours week); In-person Group Tutoring. Information will be shared with all French parents. Question; What is the cost? Dr. Eybl will check on that?

Offering a summer program for French speaking students possibly two weeks @ SAIL, 2 weeks @ NAWL

Parent states many have already made summer education plans.

Surveys (3 min.): Responses will be shared shortly. District would like to have SIT trained on Panorama to learn more about how the program works and how to read it. Idea is to substitute our next SIT meeting with information on what the survey looks like, what it asks.

Ms. Isaacs would like to know more about Panorama but doesn't like idea of giving up one SIT meeting with so many things going on ie...vacancies, testing, etc.

Dr. Eybl states that's a good point. We can ask if they will offer training in the Fall.

Msica agrees with Ms. Isaacs. Believes we need our SIT meetings every month to help the school.

Parent suggests to wait as two SIT members are leaving and there will be new members who would like to learn about it. Ms. Mayo will look into possibility for training for next school year.

1. Panorama
2. Student Survey
3. Parent Survey

Carpool/Traffic (5 – 10 min.):

Trying something new with carpool – starting Thursday morning for a.m. carpool only (Dr. Eybl)

Will the items suggested for morale boosters and teacher support come during Teacher Appreciation Week?

Posters are being made for each staff member

Take home meal for each staff member

Donut truck for staff

Stuff the Fridge idea has been discussed. Also preparing Goody Bags and delivery to each staff member

Carpool/Traffic (5 – 10 min.):

Trying something new with carpool – starting Thursday morning for a.m. carpool only (Dr. Eybl)

Dr. Eybl explains we are going to try opening the back gate in the morning and allowing 10 cars through the bus lot to drop off and then exit from the bus lot.

Morning is difficult to have everyone arrive on time. We will try it on Thursday and Friday of this week. If it works we will continue to do it.

Msica: I am assuming that all the cars will be taking from the right hand lane? Can we put more cones up if people recognise there is a lane moving faster.

Mayo: We are going to give it a chance and see how it goes.

Language Immersion information (3 min.):

Book/resource to borrow: Scaffolding Language Development in Immersion and Dual Language Classrooms (Tedick, Lyster)

Communication (3 min.):

Questions/ Concerns:

How do parents get elected to SIT? Dr. Eybl states PTSO parents can be elected.

Can we get car line on bus lot, to fill in more parking? Dr. Eybl will ask property manager.

Discussed printing tickets for Moving On, or dividing it into 2 ceremonies. Looking for ideas. Mcnamara asks if Gym can be used?

Waller asks if we can do it after school hours; then Multipurpose Room and Cafeteria can be used. Issue is Lunch and cafeteria. Dr. Eybl asks maybe we can use bag lunches.

Clarification of SIT Elections? Do SIT and PTSO elections coincide? Dr. Eybl states they happened at different times. Ms. Isaacs explains that at an open PTSO meeting she will explain who is leaving and the two groups they can be elected to. It will happen toward the end of May. When will SIT election take place? Dr. Eybl explains that she will look at her notes from last year to see what they want done. Last year they asked for the elections to happen before the end of school year.

Parent asks about International Field Trips starting again. Dr. Eybl states that until we get the go ahead from CMS we are not officially planning. Contact schools in France and Germany are still interested in working with us.

Mcnamara asks how Chinese and German enrollment are doing? Dr. Eyble states the numbers are down and need more people for German.

Question about Ms. Pylant directing traffic. Dr. Eybl states they have taken it on themselves. If

Next Meeting is May 23rd
